

FCC- Leave XM alone, this is the best thing to come along in years. Another US business that is doing what it takes and now you the Gov't want to step in. Stay out of it. There is no need to try to give some other radio station a competitive advantage.

I have this system I love it, I can finally get unfiltered news and make my own decisions, scary thought huh?

Thank you for your consideration of this matter